Lake County Sheriff's Office is requesting assistance from the public to help in solving a string of burglaries that occurred late spring on Wildhorse Island. At least five homes were broken into on the Island and items were stolen from their homes.

The property owners of one of the residences that was burglarized is offering a $1000 reward to the first person who provides information leading to the recovery of the attached three pieces of art that was stolen from their cabin. Anybody with information about these burglaries or about these pieces of art, are encouraged to contact Crime Stoppers at 1(406)883-7309 or Lake County Sheriff's Office at 1(406)883-7301. All providers of information to Lake County Sheriff's Office will be kept anonymous.
